UPPER DUBLIN HIGH SCHOOL

FT. WASHINGTON, PENNSYLVANIA

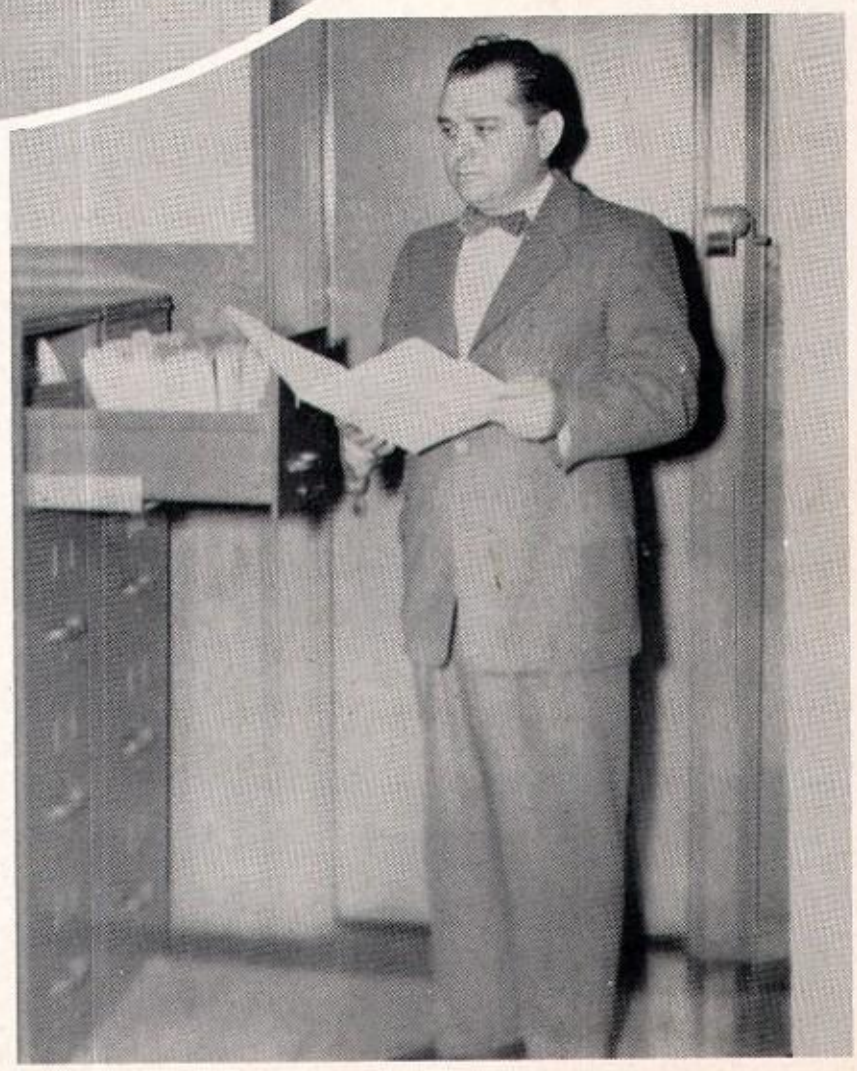
1956

Dedication

To Norman L. Jones, the principal of Upper Dublin High School, the Mundockian staff of 1956 wishes to dedicate its yearbook. We extend our deepest thanks for Mr. Jones' helping hand which is always available whenever it is needed by the school and members of the student body.

Mr. Jones has been at Upper Dublin High since the school was erected in 1950. He has seen it grow from a small junior high into the beautiful high school it is today. He has always taken a great deal of interest in the growth of school spirit and has been a continuous supporter of our Student Council and other student activities.

Again we say thank you to Mr. Jones and proudly dedicate this book to him.



The Credits

Best wishes Barbara to one fine girl.
T Shearba

Our production would not be complete without mentioning two personalities who have made everything we have accomplished these past years possible. These credits go to our loyal advisors, Mrs. Gehret and Mr. Shearba. As teachers they have been painstaking in our educational development, as advisors they have given us their untiring efforts to make our tasks a success, and as our friends they have shown inspiring help and encouragement.

Their friendly personalities, their constant examples of high ideals for which our school stands, and their faith in us have contributed greatly to our lives at Upper Dublin.

We wish them continuing success.

THE SENIOR CLASS

Supervising Principal

Directors Message

I salute you, the Class of 1956, at this Commencement upon reaching an important milestone in your life.

We are proud of you, the second class to graduate from Upper Dublin. For twelve years you have strived to attain this goal. During this time you have grown in stature, understanding, and accomplishment. We hope, that with your getting of knowledge and understanding, you have also formulated a philosophy of life that will aid you in living happily and usefully.

As you go forward from Upper Dublin, may you cherish the idealism, the enthusiasm, and the spirit which you helped to create in our school. Whether in college, in the workshop, in the office or in the home, our fondest hopes go with you.

We extend our heartiest congratulations to each one of you. May God's richest blessings thee attend. May your life be a living benediction wherever you may be.

Congratulations and best wishes to you, the Class of 1956.

W. W. ESHELMAN
Supervising Principal

At this eventful time of your life—graduation from High School—it is our earnest hope that you will carry with you the high ideals that you have given Upper Dublin during the past several years. May the lessons that you have learned, the friendships that you have formed, the experiences that you have shared go with you to enable you to live a richer, fuller, and happier life.

The members of the class of 1956, individually and collectively, have given much to Upper Dublin. Our school is better because you have been with us. In the years to come, as you pause to reflect on your High School days, you will be proud to have been a vital part of a new school.

We extend our heartiest congratulations and Best Wishes to the first Leap Year Class of Upper Dublin. Good luck and God Bless You.

Stage Crew

OFFICE STAFF

Left to right: J. Tobin, E. Holderer, S. Graham.

The stage crew consists of the many people who work behind the scenes and do not receive their true credit. But we feel our production would have been a failure without their help and cooperation.

We give thanks to them for the many things they have done that have contributed to our success.

Our Stars

"Remember the Daze"

The place—Upper Dublin High School. The scene is set, the curtain rises; and there we are! Seventy-seven little wheels, ready to set the world on fire.

Act I . . . Our Junior High Days
Scene I

We were finally getting to see what a new school looked like from the inside. How proud we were, as we announced to anyone who would listen: "I'm in High School!" We found ourselves getting lost in the shuffle from one class to another; and twenty minutes later, offering feeble excuses to whatever teacher we happened to have. They were tolerant, for they too were getting lost! The boys, who formerly knew girls as "things that can't run very fast," were discovernig that they were O. K., after all. This new-found fact came in rather handy; about this time we had our first dance. This really convinced us that we were an indispensable part of a high school.

Scene II

Up another notch! We were no longer the lowly group, but Eighth Graders. Best of all, we knew our way around! It was quite a thrill to direct the new Seventh Grade. We also had our "big trip" to Harrisburg, and to Hershey Park. The snow storm that year convinced even the most sophisticated eighth grader that she was not above the lowly art of making a snowball.

Scene III

Were we disappointed to find that we were not big wheels, but just the Freshman Class in a newly built high school. It didn't take us long to overcome any feelings of inferiority that we may have had, because this was the year we went to New York. It was the first time some of us had ever seen another state. The gym was open for our use, and we got our first glimpse of a basketball. We also ventured to produce a play, called "Spooks and Spasms." In spite of broken lamps and sick cast members, we made a sizeable profit, which inflated both our treasury and our ego. This year also brought us to the realization of how much fun growing up can be.

Act II . . . Our Senior High Days
Scene I

September brought us back as members of a Senior High. Our ranks were a little depleted, but we were still full of determination. Mr. Starner's departure no doubt caused many broken hearts among the girls, but the rapid succession of social studies teachers diverted our attention. This was the year we launched our first competitive teams, and they made a very commendable showing. For the first time, we were learning the real meaning of school spirit. It was probably some of this "spirit" which caused us to catch "snow fever" the day the water pipes froze. About 35 a.w.o.l. victims received a three-day vacation. Needless to say, it wasn't repeated. In May, the Juniors gave their initial Prom. How pretty the girls looked, in their first evening gowns, and the boys, uncomfortable, but fully aware of how handsome they were in their tuxedos.

Scene II

Then we were Juniors! Everything seemed to be improving—our teams were showing a marked rise, and our class rings came in January. The next few weeks found us continually staring at them. Our glamorous new rings gave us an idea—why not have a ring dance? Thus was the birth of a tradition. We worked diligently on our first Senior Prom. The theme was "Rendezvous de Paris," and it found us collecting all sorts of strange things like waxed wine bottles, checkered tablecloths, poodles, and of all things, an Eiffel Tower! Anyway, everything turned out "marveilleux" which, as any good frenchman knows, means "wonderful!"

Scene III

This September found us reporting as Seniors. The changes in the faculty caused us to believe that there were as many new teachers as students. For the first time, we were a combined homeroom—with Mrs. Gehret, Mr. Shearba and Mr. Foust as our advisors. We were beginning to bestow a "big brother" attitude on the lower classmen, a sure sign that we were seniors! As we smile with benign tolerance on the seventh grade, how many of us recall our own seventh grade days? Our first big job was to choose our leaders, who turned out to be Sam Sadtler as our president, Bev Kallenbach as vice president, Joan Sterner as secretary, and Sara Case as treasurer. In November, our girls won the nomination as Tri-County League Hockey Champions, and again we felt that surge of pride. November also saw us crowning Sannie Gifford as our Football Queen, and we like to think that she and her court were the nicest possible. December found us planning a "Frosty Frolic" which netted us some "cold cash" for our depleted treasury. January saw us really throwing "elbow grease" into the construction of our yearbook. These major incidents are outstanding in our minds, but we will never forget the little things like the "Valentine Barrage" showered upon Mr. Bekmezian, or our mad dashes for lunch, or our equally mad dashes when the 2:42 bell rings. Now many of us were exempt from the little pile of yellow "overdue" slips that traveled every morning from the library to room 4, the Senior Homeroom, and the unspoken requirement to wear kneesocks. It is little things like these that make a school priceless. Our six years in Upper Dublin were an important part of growing up, and we would like to thank everyone who helped us—Dr. Eshelman, Mr. Jones, and all our teachers. They have been our constant counselors, consolers, and companions as we witnessed the growth of our school. When we venture out into the world, we will try to be a credit to them, and thereby justify their faith in us. We sincerely believe that we are students in a wonderful school, so if anyone is in need of a really good school, may we speak from personal experience, and recommend Upper Dublin? It's the greatest!

I would like to express my sincere appreciation for being elected president of such a wonderful class, the class of '56.

It has been a great pleasure to have had the opportunity to work with such a fine group of officers: Beverly Kallenbach who is vice president, Joan Sterner as secretary, and treasurer Sara Case.

The class is indeed fortunate to have had two such understanding and helpful sponsors as Mrs. Gehret and Mr. Shearba who gave us their valuable guidance, support, and friendship. I am sure that our years at Upper Dublin would not have been as fruitful if it had not been for Dr. Eshelman, Mr. Norman L. Jones, and the faculty.

I hope that the knowledge that we have acquired at Upper Dublin will enable us to have a very happy future.

Thank you very much for your co-operation and great kindness during the past year.

Upper Dublin football squad racked up its second winning season as a full fledged senior high school chalking up five wins, one tie and three losses. After a rugged practice session with Springfield we opened the season officially by downing Council Rock, dropped one to Wyomissing and won the next three. We lost to Jenkintown in a hair raiser and missed a tie with Conshohocken by a single point. But we came back strong against Collegeville and ended up by standing off Plymouth-Whitemarsh.

The squad gave all they had for Coach Gilronan and were always in there trying no matter which way things went. Of the twenty-one varsity lettermen, nine are graduating seniors. They are: Co-Captains Otto Fad and Bill Burnett, Roger Berry, Al Elton, Pete Huber, Ed Matthias, Don Robins, Sam Sadtler and Pete Satterthwaite.

Upper Dublin is joining with other schools on plans to form a new league next year and it is hoped that the plans materialize. Two of our good men, Jack Banes and Dave Barclay were named co-captains for next year.

The 1955-1956 season was a very successful one this year for the Upper Dublin High School Girls' Hockey team. The capturing of the Tri-County League Hockey Trophy, for an undefeated season, was presented to the team co-captains, Sara Case and Sannie Gifford, at a special assembly in early December.

One of the main reasons the girls were so successful, was because of the opportunity they had when they attended the Agnes Irwin Hockey Day Camp, a week before season started. At the camp, the girls learned fundamentals, rules, skms and actual play. This proved to be an asset as the team showed great skill and know-how in the championship game against Lower Moreland. The game was played at Lower Moreland's field, with every girl wanting to play their best and win the championship for their deserving coach, Miss Joan Paul. The score of the winning game was one to nothing.

The League competition was composed of three teams, Lower Moreland, Palisades, and Southern Lehigh. Each team was played twice, which made up a six game season.

Another triumph of the Upper Dublin Hockey team, was the game with Springfield at the Upper Dublin field. The score of the game was Springfield two, Upper Dublin three. The coach and girls were really happy about winning this game, because last year Springfield had scored eight points to Upper Dublin's one. This goes to show how the Cardinalettes have improved in one season.

Our basketball team has steadily improved under the direction of Mr. Paul M. Jones. Undefeated in the first four games, we met Springfield who gave us our first taste of defeat. Since then all other teams were easily beaten, but our bitter rival Jenkintown who snapped our winning streaks twice. Ending the season in second place in the Tri-County League, they entered the PIAA class B district finals meeting Hatboro.

Mr. Cunningham's J. V. team also had a winning season. Composed mostly of sophomores, they gained much experience that will contribute to future teams.

Senior Girls' Basketball

As the year comes to a close, the Upper Dublin Senior High basketball team has a lot to show, in the way of victories. The girls have a record of 5 and 1, which isn't bad for their second year as a complete high school. They have under their belts in the way of winnings, Palisades, Southern Lehigh, and Lower Moreland.

One of the outstanding games was the contest with L. Moreland. The girls suffered defeat at the hands of L. Moreland, by losing, 42-31 in the first game. Later they returned for their second game and the U. D. Cardinalettes, under the fine coaching of Miss Joan Paul, gave L. Moreland a game they will long remember. The score of that thrilling game was U. D. 43, L. M. 33. Leading in the scoring department was S. Case, 23 points, followed by M. Bolenius 13, and S. Koch, 7. The guards also deserve credit for holding down L. Moreland's fast moving forwards.

Last year's Baseball squad had a terrific season winning all but the first game. With Paul V. Jones at the helm, after the first game they went undefeated and easily coped with all Tri-County league competition to win the league crown. This year with H. Martin Jones as head coach, the squad could have an equally good season although facing much tougher competition. Improving every season, the team has become one of the best in the area.

Junior High Hockey

The Upper Dublin Junior High girls' hockey team had a fairly good season this year. They were not as lucky as the Senior High, but next year, their coach, Miss Rita Causin, expects an improved season.

Some of the girls will have the privilege of attending the Agnes Irwin Hockey Day Camp. With this experience under their belts, the girls might go on to win a trophy and make their coach a happy one.

Junior Girls' Basketball

The Upper Dublin Junior High Girls' basketball team started off the season with a win over East Norriton. This was a big accomplishment as the varsity was a whole new team as last years' varsity all graduated to Senior High. Even though their win—loss record was not the best, the girls have shown a great improvement and have gained the necessary experience which they lacked in the beginning of the year. Miss Cousins' girls lost several close games but they played a fine game and will be back fighting twice as hard next year. The team would not have gone as far if it hadn't been for the fine coaching and leadership of Miss Rita Cousins, their coach.

MISS COUSINS and P. ENDICOTT
Captain

First row, left to right: J. Magyar, F. Fluck, W. Mercaldo, D. Cottom, R. Webb, M. Fahr, D. Beideman. Second row: J. Gaskin, D. Paton, A. Fad, J. Dinkins, W. Wolfe, R. Payne, G. Stevenson, Shuttleworth. Third row: P. M. Jones, Coach; R. Russell, B. Ulley, A. Pullen, J. Meekins, R. Jacobs, B. Cameron, C. Umstead, W. Richardson, E. Gebauer, Coach.

The Junior High Baseball team gained much experience in the past season under P. M. Jones and E. Gebauer. Although the past season was not a winning one, enough good players are left to form a winning team in the forthcoming season.

Standing, felt to right: J. Schwering, coach; C. Semet, D. Ligerman, G. Curtis, K. Winner, D. Christ, K. Comly, L. Ruth, R. Axford, T. Shearba, Coach. Kneeling: R. Schneider, W. Jennings, R. Smith, R. Smith, C. Lineburger, J. Freund, W. Ulley, J. Lafferty, A. Gaumer, G. Murphy.

This is the team's first year in existence and they have been improving steadily under the instruction of their coaches, Mr. Shearba and Mr. Schwering. As members of the Suburban Phila. Interscholastic Rifle Association, they won a close match against Abington, a nearby rival team. Next year we hope they will be one of the powers of the league.

The students of Upper Dublin High School are very proud of their governing body, the Student Council. This year the Student Council was divided into a senior section and a junior section for governmental procedures.

The Student Council sponsors numerous functions within the school. One of these functions is the canteen dances held after basketball games. The Council also manages the school store where candy and school supplies may be purchased.

A third function of the Student Council is the backing of the annual United Fund Drive.

In addition, each year the Student Council sponsors the football dance and the crowning of the football queen. In November of 1955, Upper Dublin played host to the Annual Tri-County Conference.

Music Department

The Music Department here at Upper Dublin has been quite active this year. Our marching band has been represented in three parades and numerous football games. Our concert band is devoted to the finer types of music. It is featured during our annual music presentations, the Christmas Program, the Spring Music Festival, and Commencement Exercises. Also at these functions we are proud to present our four choral groups, the junior and senior choruses, the boys' octet, and the girls' sextet. All music activities are under the very able direction of Mr. Robert C. Foust.

Cardinal

When spare time is available, the actors can catch up on the latest news by reading the actors' paper, "The Upper Dublin Cardinal." The Cardinal staff spent an active year publishing six issues of the paper. All activities and events of the actors' lives are published in this publication. There is a news section, a feature section, and a sports section to cover the different aspects of activities. The paper strives to include the all-around happenings on stage and off of all those who have a part in this production. The paper has been in existence since the start of the school. Any actor who wishes to be on the staff is welcome to join at the beginning of the year.

CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES to the
GRADUATING CLASS OF 1956
THE UPPER DUBLIN HIGH SCHOOL

We wish you success in your continued search for knowledge and understanding.

A nation is strong, happy and productive as long as its people are more interested in creating opportunity than in seeking security, especially the kind paid for by others.

The only enduring economic security is born of character and is carved by the individual with his own hands and by his own ingenuity in creating opportunity for himself and for others.
